These groups will assist family needs and engagements, families are part of a loving and caring congregation that looks out for the physical and mental well-being of its members. When a member has a need, the Deacon in the group will be the first point of contact and if he cannot be reached, feel free to contact another Deacon. (Rev. 8/20/25)

"And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?" (Genesis 4:9 KJV)

In this context, Cain's question is not a genuine inquiry about responsibility, but rather a sarcastic and defiant retort to God's question. While the phrase itself appears only once in the Bible, the concept of being one's "brother's keeper" has broader implications for Christian ethics and social responsibility. It implies a duty to care for others, to be aware of their well-being, and to offer help and support when needed.
